

Help Needed in McGuckin Situation

J.J. Johnson 06.06.01

Real Americans,

Time to take the Sandpoint situation to the next phase. After consideration, the time has come to give a woman of courage, JoAnn McGuckin - words of support. Here's the address:

Inmate JoAnn McGuckin
c/o Bonner County Jail
4001 N Boyer
Sandpoint, ID 83864

The deputy on the phone said "no packages". Letters only. She needs to know that she isn't fighting this battle alone. With all the stress of not having a home anymore, and being away from her children, words of encouragement will help. We at Sierra Times, won't tell you what to write. But, we ask that you let her know by finishing your letters with the following words:

"...The state needs to learn its place -- and that is not in family business. I do not accept the charges to begin with. It will be up to them to explain their behavior to everyone because it affects us all. May the public demand some answers as well.

"May the family be protected forever and ever. May they (authorities) be punished for their imposition, but may affairs of the heart be the purview of love within the house and may they never be confused."

"The Constitution of the United States of America supports this premise..."

That way she'll know you received 'her' message, too. If you can't think of what to say, just send her words back to her.

Sierra Times says, if it can't be sent with a standard first class postage stamp, then it's too big. However - to make sure she gets them, registered mail has been suggested. That's your choice, but we seemed to have little problem with the Sheriff deputies at the Jail.

JoAnn doesn't need news clippings. She doesn't need reams of documentation sent to her. She doesn't need to have money sent to jail. And she doesn't need to have deputies simply doing their job at jail being harassed by phone calls, etc. This is to support a woman who, standing for principle (and her children), has captured a nation's attention. Tomorrow, this may be you in there, maybe me. What kind of encouragement would you want?

Sincerely,

J.J. Johnson
